Modified By: 01/23/2025 1033 Duca, Joseph

Mr. Armindo, owner of "Fabricio's Auto Service" came to HQ to report a fraud. Armindo stated that he was contacted by the "Lopez Trucking" company, looking to purchase tires for their fleet of trucks. Armindo has a tire whole sale connection and was willing to purchase the tires for "Lopez Trucking" and sell them at retail. Armindo wrote business checks for all the wholsale purchases. The "Lopez Trucking" company made 4 separate purchases from Armindo with a "Clover" credit card from Armindo:

- 1. 12/14/2024 26 Tires $8,287.50
- 2. 12/20/2024 50 Tires $17,701.25
- 3. 12/30/2024 90 Tires $37,293.75
- 4. 1/9/2025 50 Tires $20,931.25

On 1/10/25, Armindo discovered that the first 3 transactions were reversed charged. His bank informed him that the "Lopez Trucking" company disputed the transactions with their credit card company. Armindo had the 4th order waiting to be picked up at this time. When the delivery truck came to pick up the tires, Armindo refused to release them. "Lopez Trucking" then disputed the 4th order and all charges were reversed and taken out of Armindo's bank account. Armindo was contacted by the "Clover" credit card company and questioned about the situation. Armindo provided all proof of every transaction made and the incident is being investigated.

Mr. Hernandez walked in to the Revere Police Headquarters to report that his ex-wife, identified as Lizzette Hernandez Rentas (DOB: 11/11/1960) lied on the following police report: Refer to incident # 23REV-45664-AR. Mr. Hernandez also wanted to report that he has since moved to Rhode Island, and Ms. Rentas has sent Mr. Hernandez what Mr. Hernandez describe as "Harassing text messages". It was explained to Mr. Hernandez that due to the fact that the alleged "harassing text messages" occurred while he is living in his new residence in Pawtucket, Rhode Island, per jurisdiction, Mr. Hernandez would have to report the harassment to Pawtucket Police Department. It should also be noted that I , Officer Gomez-Catano, was not the responding officer in incident # 23REV-45664-AR, and I am also unaware of the full facts and statements that occurred that day. Mr. Hernandez was also explained his 258E rights. This was written for documentation purposes.
