Male party came into the station to report an ongoing issue with BRAZ Auto Repair and Atlantic Auto. Business has had his vehicle for almost a year. After being totaled in an accident, they informed the RP that they could fix it for approximately $11,000. They then said it would cost $15,000. RP believes the business is just trying to get more money out of him. They want the balance paid in full before the car gets inspected. RP has a receipt saying he paid $5,000.

Party came into the station so an arrangement can be facilitated for him to pick up property at the above address. RP is the plaintiff of a 209a and was advised that this would be so he can pick up essentials.

92- MALE PICKED UP ALL HIS BELONGINGS AND WENT ON HIS WAY.
CLEAR.

Narrative: 02/19/2024 1252 Delehanty S, Sean
Party came back into the station and stated he did not retrieve his belongings because the defendant of the order was at the residence and within 100 yards of him. It was explained that having a police officer present voids his claim of a violation and that he should return to the court an have the order amended to include "vacate". He threatened to go back to the residence and cause trouble and was told that he could very well get himself placed into custody if his actions warrant it. I also advised him to consult a lawyer for advice as this is a civil matter and the courtesy extended to him to have an officer stand by has now expired.
