Mr. Connolly came to HQ to report that he believes that he is being scammed by "Xfinity". Connolly stated that "Xfinity" sent him an apple iPad and was charging him for the service of the iPad. Connolly did not authorize this purchase nor does he want it. He was told to mail it back to "Xfinity", but he is afraid that they will say they did not recieve it andd continue to charge him. The iPad was delivered to a property that they own in Provincetown, MA, 16 Harry Kemp Way. Connolly has notified his bank and they suggested reporting the incident to police. "Xfinity" stated that if the iPad is sent back, they will refund the charges. Connolly went to a physical store in Saugus and they were no help.

CESPEDES called RPD to inquire about getting a police escort to pick up her belongings due to a recent arrest. Officer Digitale spoke with the victim, Kevin ISAZA, who stated that CESPEDES can come today 4/22/25 at 1300 hours to get her belongings. This officer informed CESPEDES of the timeframe to which she agreed. She was advised to stop at the RPD station to get a police escort before heading to residence to which she understood.

NIGRO came in stating that a few days ago she was at Vinnys Market. She was backing out of her parking spot on the North Ave side of the building when she accidentally backed into the passenger door of a gray SUV. NIGRO was unable to get the plate or type of SUV. She stated that she waited outside for the potential registered owner to come out but noone did. NIGRO had to leave, however, when she came back the vehicle was gone. NIGRO would like this incident documented in case the owner of the vehicle comes to report the accident.

 vici- parties have cleared, security handled the situation

Narrative: 04/28/2025 0219 Carey, Patricia Upon arrival at the Squire Lounge parking lot, I did not observe any active disturbance. I entered the parking lot with my emergency blue lights activated. I exited my unmarked K9A cruiser and spoke with security and a manager. Both stated that there had been a group causing a disturbance, however, they began to yell at the group to leave. The manager stated that cooler heads prevailed and they left. He also stated that they called for assistance at the start of the disturbance in case they were unable to handle it. I observed no obvious patrons still in the parking lot. The vehicles still in the lot appeared to be waiting to transport some of the employees home. I cancelled the other units and cleared the scene.

Narrative: 04/28/2025 0441 Carey, Patricia
As I came back into the front lot of the Northgate parking lot I observed approx. 5 MVs parked near the Burlington Coat Factory. There were approx. 6 males. Three of the males were holding another male from another male. There was continuous yelling back and forth between these males. I stopped to see what the issue was. The tow truck was dropping a vehicle from the truck. I then learned that this was a vehicle that was towed from Keayne St. The owner of the vehicle was upset that his vehicle had been towed. I told all parties involved to leave the premises if there business was done. Peace restored...clear.

Attached party came into police headquarters to request a police detail to remove items of personal property from his marital home due to an active 209A. The contact number provided by the RP to contact his wife was listed as not in-service. RP was advised that we would attempt to go by the address to make contact, but that we could not schedule a detail to "keep the peace" without her agreement as to date and time. 92 reports nobody home at the address at this time.
