Narrative: 07/12/2024 1155 Duca, Joseph
Ms. Snell came to report that $1848.12 was stolen from her bank account (Cambridge Teachers FCU) back in April of this year. There were unauthorized transactions made on:

4/2/24 $300
4/3/24 $461.64
4/3/24 $1,011.45
4/3/24 $16.72
4/4/24 $29.92
4/4/24 $28.39

Since April, Snell has been asking the bank for help and she has been given the run around. The bank told her they would investigate the matter, but never did. She has called countless times and spoke to numerous employees at the bank, and nobody will help her. Snell was advised to continue to contact the bank to get the money back, while an investigation is underway.

Mr. Harris came to HQ to report harassment by Lawrence Dozzella. Dozellla was accused of putting an unknown substance into the gas tank of Mr. Harris's truck, last year. Recently Dozellla was found not guilty in the case.

The next day Dozella called a mutual friend, James Flemming of his and Harris, and told him that "I won the case and I am not done with him yet". Harris sees this as harassment through a 3rd party. Harris was advised that if any additional incidents occur, to notify police.

One June 14th the resident allowed a male party into her home whom she believed to be a comcast employee. How ever the male party did not have wear a comcast uniform, drive a comcast truck, nor did he have any tools a comcast employee would typically have. The male party was in her fixing the router and attempted to follow the female party into her bedroom. Cp requested the male party to leave her house in which he did however cp would like this noted. Hispanic male 5'11 brown hair with a close shaven beard in his 20's.
