reporting issues with her neighbor named Liliana Arteago (440A malden st). Ms Arteago has told Ms Lopera that she does not say hi to her kids and does not allow the dogs to play with them. Ms Arteago is upset and complains to Ms Lopera's husband. Ms lopera also had an issue with Ms Arteago where she accused her of parking incorrectly which did not allow her and her friends to park correctly. All these issues do not rise to a level of harassment. Ms Lopera is concerned about Ms Arteago trying to do something to her dogs. She will place a camera in the rear of the house. At this time there is no harassment. Ms Lopera was advised to report if other issues occur.

Modified By: 09/29/2024 1356 Perrin S, Sean

On September 29, 2024, approximately 1315 hrs., William CHAMPITO came into police headquarters to report alleged forgery by his tenant. Mr. CHAMPTIO handed me a pre-printed victim/witnes statement which alleged that his tenant had submtted a falsified pay stub in connection with his rental application, and that this was a violation of M.G.L. C. 267, Sec 5. After reviewing said chapter and section, I advised CHAMPITO that the chapter and section he cited only applies to forged land court documents, and that the civil issues with his tenant should be handled via civil eviction/summary process through East Boston District Court. I also provided CHAMPITO the contact number for the EBDC District Attorney if he felt that a criminal charge was still the appropriate way to proceed with his tenant issues.
