Modified By: 11/11/2024 1626 Resic, Kenan

Mr venuti sent a check in the mail on October 26th. He placed the envelope into the mail box in front of city hall. Last week, Mr Venuti's bank notified him that there was an overdraft due to a check. Mr Venuti sent the original check in the amount of 30 Dollars (paid to Revere Journal). The check was changed to the amount of 8100.33 Dollars paid out to a Willie Glass. Its Check number 2698. The bank where the deposit was attempted was Santander Bank. The suspect attempted to deposit it inside his own bank account that he has with Santander Bank. Unknown if this was a mobile deposit or in person. No money was lost as the bank was able to put a stop to it.

Narrative: 11/16/2024 1334 KAISER, BRENNIA

RP IS DCF HOTLINE, RECIEVED AN ANONYMOUS REPORT OF CHILD NEGLECT. REPORTED THAT MOTHER WAS USING 94C (COCAINE) INSIDE THE HOME AND LIVING CONDITIONS ARE UNSAFE FOR THE CHILD. MOTHER HAS NOT BEEN SHOWING UP TO WORK, GRANDMOTHER RESIDES IN THE HOME AS WELL. NO FURTHER INFO

Narrative: 11/16/2024 1417 Gomez-Catano, Alejandro
This anonymous report to DCF was unfounded. Officer on scene spoke with mother, who stated that she believes this to be retaliation from a coworker for exposing the coworker out about substance abuse at the workplace. I also spoke with the mother's employer, who stated that he also believed this to be retailiation against the mother, and that this anonymous reporter is not to be trusted. The mother allowed me inside the house and I observed the child to appear well nourished, with clean clothes, and a clean room for the child.

Narrative: 11/16/2024 1419 Gomez-Catano, Alejandro

There is no indication of substance abuse of the mother based on my observations. I also explained to the mother her 258E rights, and advised her to go to court if she obtains proof that this incident is in fact retaliation from her coworker. Unit clear, peace restored.
