Male party came into the station to report threats to kill. He received a call yesterday and did not answer. After texting the number back (470-714-2981), he received a text today from a different number (347-556-9456). The text said that the person texting was a hitman and that he was going to kill the RP unless he paid him money. I advised RP that this is a common tactic to scam people out of money. I said I would log it into our system for the time being. I told him that if anything changes (i.e. threats continue or worsen, person sends pictures of RP's house or names of family, RP sees strange vehicles near his house, etc) to come back to report it and further action would be taken. Multiple reports on Google for the 347 number regarding a similar scam. Log entry only at this point

 Ms Paige Sanders stated that she and her brother have been in a contentious legal dispute over her late fathers assets against her two aunts. Her aunts are named Lisa Sanders and Dawn Royal. Paige believes that some of these legal requests are harassment. Ms Royal posted a request on pages old employer's public website. Paige is upset that this was not done in a private manner instead airing out in a public space. The legal requests for documents has been a stressfull ordeal for Paige. Paige was advised that legal documents requests and the court process itself does not rise to the level of criminal harassment. Paige was advised if her aunts directly harass her via phone or come by the house to document it with the Police.

Narrative: 11/22/2024 1212 Duca, Joseph

Ms. Papia came to HQ to report that she wrote a check to Samuel Holmes Inc., a wholesale food vendor for $336.00. The check was dropped off to the business, on or about the week of October 18th, 2024. The check was cashed on the 26th at Santander Bank, and the person received cash for it. Samuel Holmes contacted Papia and informed her that they never received the check. Evidently someone forged the check and cashed it in the Samuel Holmes Inc. name. Samuel Holmes Inc. will have to file a report with their local police department because the check was in their name and forged. This would be considered check fraud against the business.

Narrative: 11/24/2024 1434 Cipoletta, Randy
Spoke to both families at length. The Toyota was legally parked on the street outside of 29 Putnam. The residents of 29 Putnam think that it was parked there on purpose to provoke them. The son, James, of the residents of 36 Putnam was visiting for dinner and stated that he would move the vehicle after dinner.

Both families stated that there have been ongoing issues for many years. Both families feel harassed by each other. They have court on Monday 11/25 for the ongoing feud.
