Narrative: 12/13/2024 1333 Gomez-Catano, Alejandro

Mr. Bernal walked in with his daughter (unidentified) and stated that his daughter, that goes to Revere High School, was given a check by her friend, identified as Santiago Osorio Oza (unknown DOB), for the total amount of $2,000 to be deposited her own bank account. Mr. Bernal's daughter was promised a percentage of the check if the transaction was a success. The details of the check are the following:
Amount to be paid: $2,000
To the order of: Marcela Bastos
By: NC Clean Company, by Santander Bank,
Check number : 2373.

Mr. Beltran stated that his daughter deposited the check into her own bank account and now his daughter's bank account is locked to by her bank (American Airlines Credit Union) identifying the check as fraudulent. Mr. Beltran stated that the $2,000 check did not belong to his daughter, and no other funds or identity were stolen in the attempted deposit of the check.

I advised Mr. Beltran and his daughter, to not deposit any checks that are to be paid to other persons under any circumstances and to stay away from her friend Santiago.

Services Rendered.
