Book Discussion Major Pettigrew's Last Stand by Helen Simonson Wednesday, December 10th at noon

Led by Mark Nystrom

Plan on traveling to Edgcombe St. Mary, a small village in the English countryside filled with rolling hills, thatched cottages, and a cast of characters both hilariously original and as familiar as the members of your own family. Among them is Major Ernest Pettigrew (retired) who is wry, courtly, opinionated, and completely endearing. An unexpected friendship with a Pakistani shopkeeper who shares his love of literature begs the question 'can a provincial village accept this norm-breaking friendship'?

The Storied Life of A.J. Fikry by Gabrielle Zevin

Wednesday, January 21st at noon

Led by Mark Nystrom

A. J. Fikry is the cantankerous owner of Island Books who has recently endured some tough years: his wife has died, his bookstore is experiencing the worst sales in its history, and his prized possession--a rare edition of Poe poems--has been stolen. Over time, he has given up on people, and even the books in his store, instead of offering solace, are yet another reminder of a world that is changing too rapidly; until a most unexpected occurrence gives him the chance to make his life over and see things anew. The book offers charm, humor and insight - just the right mixture for a good January read!
