

Massachusetts Statewide Local Working Group Meeting

Local Working Group (LWG) Meetings are an opportunity to provide input on natural resource priorities for the NRCS and the state conservationist. Agricultural producers, owners/operators of nonindustrial private forest land, professionals representing agricultural and natural resource interests, and individuals representing a variety of disciplines in the soil, water, wetland, plant, forestry, and wildlife sciences are all welcome.

Please Note: Whether or not you plan to attend the virtual meeting, please make your voice heard by filling out an NRCS survey, available here: <https://bit.ly/3PSx5La>. A list of definitions of the resource concerns listed in the survey can be found here: <https://bit.ly/3wyceG8>.

Answers to this survey will not only structure the LWG meeting, but will also guide our work going forward.
