

2024 LVFSC Annual Poetry Contest Terms:

- All poets retain intellectual rights to their poems.
- All judging is final.
- Hard copies of poems will not be returned.
- Winners will be notified by April 19, 2024.
- Other confirmation of receipt should not be expected.

By entering a poem you, or your legal guardian, are consenting to the following:

Literacy Volunteers of Franklin and Somerset Counties (LVFSC) has the right to use (or not use) the poem on its website, in social media, and in the press, as well as the poet's full name, age, and town where they live.

LVFSC has the right to edit (without seeking further approvals from you) poems for issues related to formatting.

LVFSC may contact you to discuss options for recording a poem if it is selected. If you consent, LVFSC has the right to use (or not use) a recording that you make and submit, and to edit it without opportunities for you to review it, and publish it.

By entering a poem, you are confirming that the entry is your original piece of work and does not infringe upon the IP rights of others.

The personal information provided by you is used for processing contest submissions and results and will be deleted after the final event.

No personal information will be disclosed to third parties; this means that your contact details and names will not be shared with any other businesses and/or added to any mailing lists.
